

Sherrie Liddell

401 N.281 Georgetown, Texas 78626 sherrie.liddell@gmail.com (281)214-4000

Biographical Profile

Over 10 years of proven regulatory compliance adherence in chemical and pharmaceutical drug manufacture data and processes from raw material receipt, bulk product processing, finished product compounding and fill, product packaging, product market release to customer complaints.

— Key Qualifications —

- Accomplished quality professional with expertise in applying compliance regulations and updates, comprehension of analytical procedures including compendia approaches, ascertaining compliance within the laboratory environment and within manufacturing operations, including safety precautions, and manufacture risks assessment; auditing internal processes and its associated data.
- Extremely organized and detail-oriented in thorough review of quality control and assurance data, authoring of quality documents including management review summaries and corrective/prevention action documents.
- Efficient and accurate in management of quality data review and processes. Proficiency in conveying compliance issues, risks assessments, and their results in written or oral formats.
- Balanced multi-tasker in fast paced manufacture environments. Assail compliance and quality expertise to manufacture companies. Welcome new responsibilities to incorporate compliance responsibilities in industry.

Professional Experience

First Priority, Inc. – Elgin, Illinois
COMPLIANCE MANAGER, 1/2013 to 1/2015

Responsible for the daily compliance of quality data and processes. Also responsible for coaching personnel to maintain Good Laboratory Practices and Good Documentation Practices, conducting training of test procedures and compendia updates, observation and assurance of Good Manufacturing Practices.

Selected Contributions:

- 100% accuracy in individual compliance data upon FDA on-site audit data review
- Authored a greater than 125 page corrective action/prevention action summary of Stability Program deficiencies and gaps.
- Enabled team good data and reduced repeat testing by laboratory personnel to a 98% accuracy rate through thorough data review, analysis mentoring, and coaching.

Kalle Scientific Contracted Placement/Alcon (A Novartis Company) – Des Plaines, Illinois
VALIDATION CONSULTANT, 11/2011 to 3/2012

Incorporated project direction for approaches of validating biologic test methods with technological efficiency to newly derived test methods. Assessed instrument validation risk gaps. Authored validation summaries with analytical outcomes.

Continued...